3. I informed Mr. McTigue, Counsel to the Kersten Committee on Communist Aggression, that Cong. Machrowicz had met the [redacted] and suggested the possibility of a press conference, under the auspices of the Kersten Committee, at which [redacted] could comment on recent changes [redacted] arising out of [redacted] testimony. Mr. McTigue subsequently informed me that Cong. Machrowicz was merely offering this in case we wished to take advantage of it, but he was not pressing it. As a result, after talking with [redacted] it was determined not to go ahead with the press conference.
